

Unitarian Universalist Men's Fellowship

2010 Fall Renewal: September 24-26, 2010

The Male Experience: Turning Points in Our Lives

An opportunity for men to revisit defining seminal moments or events in their lives so they may better understand who they are becoming and to reassure them in the knowledge that this community stands beside them, in support, both on the mountain as well as in their daily lives.

- Workshops • Rituals • Meditation
- Swimming • Climbing Wall • Horse Shoes
- Singing • Music Making • Hiking

Camp Cedar Glen, located near Julian a little over an hour from downtown San Diego, is a lovely, nurturing environment to relax and bond with brothers in fellowship. Open to all men, we especially invite younger men 20 to 35/40. (reduced registration fee!) Please consider inviting friends. To ensure your space, please print this document, fill in the registration form below, and send it to us along with your donation. It is our policy to support attendance by men who may have financial difficulties. For information on scholarship assistance or for questions about this event, please contact Mike Dorfi, mdorfi@cox.net, (619-466-5952)
