

A renewed invitation from the 8th Principle Collaboration Group of San Diego

The 8th Principle Collaboration Group of San Diego invites you to join us in continuing a study of Widening the Circle of Concern. We will continue to meet virtually monthly this fall until next spring at 10 am on second Saturday mornings: September 10, October 8, November 12, December 10, January 14, February 11, March 11, April 8, and May 13. We have found these discussions to be enriching and fulfilling work and hope to share that joy among our congregations. This work is an affirming way to celebrate the adoption and implementation of the 8th principle. These sessions will be informal and open to all San Diego UUs. Each month will have a new chapter from the book to read before our discussion. We hope you'll return each month, but joining for a topic that particularly interests you would work as well and you can join at any point. The book is available for free online, including in audio format, and is also available for purchase as a printed book or kindle book (links below).

What is Widening the Circle of Concern?

Widening the Circle of Concern: Report of the UUA (Unitarian Universalist Association) COIC (Commission on Institutional Change) is the final work of the Commission, presented in June 2020. This book “represents the culmination of the Commission’s work analyzing structural and systemic racism and white supremacy culture within Unitarian Universalism and makes recommendations to advance long-term cultural and institutional change that redeems the essential promise and ideals of Unitarian Universalism” (from back cover). Read more about the Commission on Institutional Change here.

What is the 8th Principle Collaboration Group of San Diego?

Our group formed in 2021 as part of the work San Diego UU congregations are doing to implement the 8th principle. We collaborate to share ideas and resources; we celebrate being able to do the work of the 8th principle in community. We usually meet monthly and welcome new members.
