Let the Life I've Lived Speak For Me

(Ah…)
Let the life I've lived speak for me
Let the life I've lived speak for me
When I come to the end of the road
And I lay down my heavy load
Let the life I've lived speak for me
(Ah…)
Let the friends I've made speak for me
Let the friends I've made speak for me
When I come to the end of the road
And I lay down my heavy load
Let the friends I've made speak for me

Lay down your burden, and rest with the setting sun
All the beauty of your life will shine when your day is done

Let the love I've shared speak for me
Let the love I've shared speak for me
Let the love that I've tried to share
And the burdens I've struggled to bear
All this life of joy and care speak for me

Let the life I've lived speak for me.

Rising Green

My blood doth rise in the roots of yon oak,
her sap doth run in my veins.
Boundless my soul, like the open sky,
where the stars forever have lain

Where the stars, where the stars,
where the stars forever have lain.
My hands hold the weavings of time without end,
my sight as deep as the sea.
Beating, my heart sounds the measures of old,
that of love's eternity.

That of love, that of love,
that of love's eternity.

I feel the tides as they answer the moon,
rushing on a far distant sand.
Winging my song is the wind of my breast and my love blows over the land.

And my love, and my love,
and my love blows over the land.

My foot carries days of the old into new,
our dreaming shows us the way.
Wondrous our faith settles deep in the earth,
rising green to bring a new day.
Rising green, rising green,
rising green to bring a new day.

Ise Oluwa
(sung in the Yoruba language)

Translation:
That which the Creator has made, can never be destroyed.

May Your Life Be as a Song
May your life be as a song,
Resounding with the dawn
to sing awake the light.
And softly serenade the stars,
Ever dancing circles in the night.
