First Unitarian Universalist Church of San Diego

Our Mission

Our mission is to create community, to nurture spiritual growth, and to act on our values to help heal the world.
Nuestra misión es crear comunidad, fomentar el crecimiento espiritual y vivir nuestros valores para ayudar a sanar el mundo.

Our Eight Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
2. Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
3. Acceptance of one another, and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
5. The right of conscience, and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
7. Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part;
8. Building a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and oppressions.

February Generosity Offering
Black Lives of Unitarian Universalism

The Generosity Offering for the month of February is BLUU (Black Lives of Unitarian Universalism). A portion of the proceeds collected will go towards a scholarship for a UU employee or seminarian from Southern California to assist with the cost of attending the Finding Our Way Home conference in Atlanta in April. This conference, a retreat for UU religious professionals of Color, offers an opportunity for spiritual growth, community building, and collegial support. You can donate on our website, under gift designation select "Generosity."

Journey Toward Wholeness (JTW) What Can I Do?

Beloved Conversations is back. The Fahs Collaborative at Meadville Lombard is opening registration for their Within programs for Spring 2023. The program for BIPOC is called Gathering Our Selves; Un/Learning for Liberation has been created for white participants. These programs have been described as a "deep dive into the personal, transformative, spirit-growing work that each of us needs to do around issues of race, identity and justice." Registration will run from Feb 1 — Feb 28. Register HERE.

What's Happening?

Call for Delegates for General Assembly

The Unitarian Universalist Association General Assembly (GA) is coming up this June 21-25 in Pittsburg and online. February is the month for reduced early bird registration fees and hotel reservations before March 1.

GA is the annual conference of UUs from around the world and is a very inspiring and educational experience. Besides the business of the association, there are three days of workshops on social justice issues, congregational growth and problem solving, and sharing of success stories to name a few. There are also nationally known speakers relating our faith to the problems of the world.

First UU is looking for five more delegates to represent our church. Delegates can be either onsite or online. They vote on business items, social justice resolutions and this year, for President of the association. If you'd prefer not to be a delegate, registration is open to all interested in our larger faith – you just can't vote. Please consider attending this wonderful gathering either in person or online. For more information and registration please go to uua.org/ga or email johnschaibly@gmail.com.

Podcast

Listen to "The First Source" a podcast created by Tony Bianca in conversation with First UU congregants around issues of spirituality, church life, faith and life in general. Episode 2 with Kate Collier is now available at: anchor.fm/anthony-bianca/episodes/Episode-2-Kate-Collier-e1ulr0g

Another Way to Pay Your Pledge!

If you are 73 or older, you can meet your annual pledge to First UU by using a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) from an IRA. This will reduce the taxes you might owe because those funds will be excluded from your Federal Taxable income. Find out more on our website under "Giving."

Year End Tax Letters Sent!

The 2022 Year End Tax Letters have gone out as of 4:25 pm on Tuesday, January 31, 2023. These are sent via a mass email process, so if you did not receive yours, please contact robie@firstuusandiego.org and she will send you a duplicate copy.

Camp de Benneville Pines Annual Assembly

Mark your calendar for the Camp de Benneville Pines Annual Assembly: Living in Harmony with Each Other and Our Earth. With the PSWD dissolved, de Benneville Pines is continuing the annual district meeting for the PSWSA (Pacific SouthWest Service Area). This meeting will be held in San Louis Obispo April 21-23. Keep watch for registration information at uucamp.org after February 18 and in the March First Words.

Staff Job Posting!

We have a 25 hours per week job opening for Membership Coordinator. Take a look and feel free to send to a friend who might be interested. Job Posting for Membership Coordinator.

Matching Funds Gift for Earthquake Relief in Turkey

Generous First UU members have offered to match up to $1,000 for donations made to Earthquake Relief in Turkey from the two catastrophic quakes on Feb 6th, 2023. The UUSC has stated that they cannot mount a special effort for earthquake relief at this time, so please make checks out to FUUSD (write "earthquake" on the memo line) or donate online and the church will send the donation in one lump sum to The Fund for Global Human Rights to be earmarked for this specific purpose. For more information, please contact Robie.

The Art of Leaving This World in Style

Saturday, February 18, 10 am, Bard Hall and Zoom at bit.ly/UUSeniors. San Diego Memorial Society member Andres Barnes, and First UU members Armin and Rhea Kuhlman will speak on ways to dispose of earthly trappings - namely the body! Traditional cremation, along with more ecological choices - like green burial, and body donation to science - are two options. Program hosted by UU Seniors. Coffee and tea available at 9:45 am, come early and socialize! All are welcome.

Hillcrest In-Person Social Hour

February 19, Sundays, following worship, Hillcrest Patio. Join your community on the Hillcrest patio after the service for social time with coffee, tea and snacks.

Men's Fellowship Annual Banquet

February 27, Monday, 6 pm — 9 pm, Bard Hall. If you're curious about the UUMF, please join us for our Annual Banquet. The conversation is always unique and the fellowship is unbeatable. You can learn about the Fellowship and meet new friends. We will be celebrating First UU's 150 years and the Men's Fellowship's 39 years. It is a catered meal, not a potluck, and there is no charge. We welcome all who self-identify as straight, gay, or transgender men. For info, or to RSVP, visit the courtyard table after Sunday service or contact John Keasler, 619-278-1267, or Chris Guelich, 619-307-1896.

Plastic Bags Needed

Our Food Pantry is in need of the thicker, reusable plastic bags. If you have any, you can bring them to Hillcrest on Sunday and drop them off in the box by the Welcome Table. As well as the bags, the pantry is in need of "ready to eat" canned foods that have pop tops (such as ravioli, Spagghetios, etc.).

Organizing for Justice Meeting

March 2, first Thursdays, 6 pm, online. Organizing for Justice (O4J) meets on the first Thursday of each month. Please contact Newt Ferris for further information.

Front Street Productions Presents!

February 19, Sundays, 11:45 am — 1 pm, South Bay Campus. Contact Loreleigi@hotmail.com for details.

Social Justice

Climate Action:
How Environmental Justice Can Work for Everyone

Check out Green America's blog offering resources for Black History Month and Black leadership for social, economic, and environmental justice. Activist Leah Thomas's book The Intersectional Environmentalist makes a compelling case that we can only achieve environmental justice when we are activists for both communities of color and the environment. Topics include recognizing that Climate Change is Already Fatal and A Healthy Environment? That's a Benefit of White Supremacy. CLICK HERE for the blog.

Climate Action:
Attend SD350's March 15 Microtransit Workshop

How do you cover that first or last mile to and from the bus or trolley? Microtransit, electric shuttles and vans that provide shared rides between locations within a zone or community, is one way. Hear from national and local experts how it could work in San Diego. Register HERE for this free workshop. Bonus: free pizza!

Family & Lifespan

Children's RE

This Sunday, Feb 19, Tony will be in the Service with the Handbells and Kate is away, so all children & youth will have a combined RE Group with Lara.

Children's Music Program

11:15 am — 11:45 am, Sundays, February 26, March 12 and 26, April 2, 16, and 30. Pre-K to 2nd grade: Room 105. 3rd grade and up: Common Room.

Youth and Young Adults

February 20, Monday, 5:30 pm, room 114b. This month youth aged 12-18 and young adult partners (22-34) are gathering to sharpen our writing and poetry skills, play some games, and eat some yummy food together. Eva Garcia Mayers will be leading us in the writing activities, which is fabulous because Eva is fabulous.

Young Adult Group

February 27, Mondays, 5:30 pm — 7 pm, Room 114b. This is an open, welcoming space to share meaningfully, play games, consider social and climate justice issues, and plan events. If you are interested in gathering with us, contact Lara Anderson.

RE Help Needed

We still need adults to help in Sunday RE. If you're available to help on one or more Sundays, email Tony.
