Our Mission

Our mission is to create community, to nurture spiritual growth, and to act on our values to help heal the world. Nuestra misión es crear comunidad, fomentar el crecimiento espiritual y vivir nuestros valores para ayudar a sanar el mundo.

Our Eight Principles

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
2. Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
3. Acceptance of one another, and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
5. The right of conscience, and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
7. Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part;
8. Building a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and oppressions.

From Your Reopening Team

Sunday, February 27: We'll be back together again for in-person, outdoor worship services on the patio at our Hillcrest campus! Masked, reasonably distanced, and with a clear expectation that all who can do so will be fully vaccinated. This includes a booster.

But no one is excluded and we'll do no checking about vaccination status.

All masks must be N95, KN95, or KF94 types, fully covering the nose and mouth. No cloth masks will be allowed. Masks will be provided if needed.

We trust everyone to use good judgement and we welcome persons of all ages.

The overall rating for our area and California in general has dropped down to the "Very High" level. It's not down to "High," which we had hoped to reach, but we're convinced by the trends and by the real need for all of us to be together again.

We know some among us are still struggling, due to being immunocompromised or other issues. We understand. And we hope you will find a comfortable place amidst our decisions.

Our front-line staff have special, heightened concerns as well. We're trying to reach a balance. We realize we can't avoid all risk and prevent all possibility of infection.

South Bay presents further issues since there is no designated, regular outdoor space for worship services. We hope the decisions for Hillcrest can guide decisions that will later be made about South Bay's services.

Any time after resuming in-person services on the 27th we believe it will be OK for outdoor, in-person meetings to resume – in groups of no more than 15 – masked, distanced, and with high expectations about being fully vaccinated.

Likewise, singing choirs and the handbell choir may exercise their own judgements about resuming practices, while acknowledging the special risks of spreading this air-borne disease through singing. We will not resume congregational singing at this time.

We're taking some big steps about being together, which makes us happy. But we'll continue to watch many numbers carefully.

From Your Minister in Residence

Ross Gay is a poet and teacher whose words I find sustaining and inspiring. His poems often reflect a kind of exuberant praise for this world of ours; one of his recent collections is Catalogue of Unabashed Gratitude. This lovely reminder comes from Gay's more recent The Book of Delights:

"I suppose I could spend time theorizing how it is that people are not bad to each other, but that's really not the point. The point is that in almost every instance of our lives, our social lives, we are, if we pay attention, in the midst of an almost constant, if subtle, caretaking. Holding open doors. Offering elbows at crosswalks. Letting someone else go first. Helping with the heavy bags. Reaching what's too high, or what's been dropped. Pulling someone back to their feet. Stopping at the car wreck, at the struck dog. The alternating merge, also known as the zipper. This caretaking is our default mode and it's always a lie that convinces us to act or believe otherwise. Always."

May we remember! ~ Rev. Kathleen McTigue

Connections Committee

The Connections Committee urges church members to fill out the UUA Study Commission's Article II Study survey www.uua.org/uuagovernance/committees/article-ii-study-commission. Article II of the UUA's Bylaws, Principles and Purposes, is the foundation for all of the work of our UUA, which hasn't been discerned since 1987. The purpose of the survey is for UUs to reimagine the heart of Unitarian Universalism in the 21st Century. If interested in more information, please contact Kathleen MacLeod, a member of the Connections Committee, at kmacleod1@cox.net.
