Our Church Family

Longtime and beloved member of this congregation, Bernice Maller, died on March 14th after a long decline. We extend our love and sympathy to her daughters and the wide circle of friends and family who will miss her deeply.

The Maller family remains ever grateful for the friendships, programs, guidance and loving community at First Unitarian Universalist Church of San Diego. Bernice found such pleasures there.

Congregational Singing

We have returned to singing together as a congregation at our outdoor worship services. Please continue to wear your highest quality mask—this will help us maintain a safer space for our whole community while we gather together in song.

Dear UUs in San Diego,

Thank you so much for the welcome on Sunday, as I shared in the service, it was a true joy being with you. I was also very glad to be able to share some information about how UUSC is responding to the growing refugee crisis being created by the Russian invasion of Ukraine. If you would like to support this work, please follow this link to UUSC's Emergency Response Fund. Gifts coming in now will be used to support both immediate response and long-term partnerships to protect and advance human rights for Ukrainian refugees.

In faith,
Rev. Mary Katherine Morn, UUSC president

From Your Minister in Residence

Many decades ago, Thomas Merton— progressive Catholic priest and passionate advocate for interfaith dialogue— wrote a book called Conjectures of a Guilty Bystander. This passage from the book is one that I found striking when I first read it as a young activist who often found myself pulled in so many directions that my efforts often felt ineffective. I still think there's deep wisdom here, so I offer his words for your own reflection on the ways that our capacity to say "no" is a way to empower our "yes".... since none of us can do everything:

"To allow oneself to be carried away by a multitude of conflicting concerns, to surrender to too many demands, to commit oneself to too many projects, to want to help everyone in everything, is to succumb to violence. The frenzy of our activism neutralizes our work for peace. It destroys our own inner capacity for peace. It destroys the fruitfulness of our own work, because it kills the root of inner wisdom which makes work fruitful." ~ Thomas Merton

Reopening Team News

PROGRESS: The reopening Team met on Saturday March 5 to review together what we currently know about Covid in our area and the direction things are trending. Based on our discussion we are ready to recommend the following:

- Worship services should continue to be outdoors and masked at least through the rest of March.
- Based on steadily shrinking Covid cases and changed recommendations nationally and in our area, we are comfortable expanding our worship services to include singing and social hour following the service.
- Based on all that we know about Covid transmission and our awareness that some among us still cannot be effectively vaccinated, we recommend that singing outdoors continues to be masked, and that social hour will follow "airplane rules," that is, we remain masked except when actively taking a sip or a bite.
- We recommend that our staff begin working toward an eventual return to indoor worship by reviewing all the infrastructure and staff needs to do so, knowing that after two years away from what was once "normal", there will be considerable logistical efforts involved in returning inside.
- Knowing that there are multiple levels of vulnerability among us and widely varying perspectives on risk, we will continue to offer livestreaming as an option even after our eventual return to indoor worship. At that point, we will also offer a third option of viewing worship services from the patio for those wishing to remain outdoors.
- We support our South Bay campus in moving forward at the same pace as the Hillcrest campus, knowing that there are also additional logistical concerns having to do with the Food Pantry. Our staff and volunteers have these issues well in hand.
- On a key point about infrastructure, skilled people have set up a complex facility outdoors to livestream our worship services. Deciding to move indoors will involve rebuilding all of that in the meeting house. That's a huge effort, hard to undo if an upsurge were to force us back out again. So we're working first on more and more happening outdoors before services move indoors. We'll continue with the livestream option open to everyone, no matter what.
- We're a solid, loving community. This is a time of trauma recovery, but we're in this together and definitely continuing to make progress.
