Journey Toward Wholeness (JTW) What Can I Do?

Examine "positive stereotypes" of Black people, Indigenous people, and people of color. "The 'model minority myth' only persists as long as it's convenient for the group in power." <http://bit.ly/PosStereotypes>

For an explanation of the link between positive stereotypes and coverage of recent racially motivated attacks against Asians and Asian Americans, read this Instagram post and caption. <https://www.instagram.com/p/CMCtltjgCVC/>

What's Happening?

News From the FUUSD Board

And it came to pass that our beloved homegrown minister, The Reverend Tania Márquez, let us know of the shift in her sense of call. Her ministry, nurtured and cherished, will now be released into the wider world, like the fruit of a seed that goes to spread more light and love.

Once we learned of this upcoming change, the Board began its work as per the FUUSD Constitution to search for and hire an interim minister to meet the challenges of our church as it is and as we begin to live into new realities in this time of pandemic. We spoke with the UUA transitions office in February and are now preparing the paperwork necessary for us to participate in the interim search process. The Board search team has been formed, consisting of Rev. Kathleen Owens, President Sarah Ormond and board member Angela Garcia-Sims. The Board's search team hopes to have successfully completed their work by May.

We want you to participate in our Flower Communion on Easter Sunday, April 4. You're invited to take a selfie with a flower and email your photo to Tony at Tony@firstuusandiego.org. Please send it by Wednesday, March 31. Thanks!

News From the Re-opening Team

We're excited that vaccinations are happening for many members and friends in the congregation. If you need help getting an appointment, please let Rose Riedel (rose@firstuusandiego.org) know and she'll match you with a Vaccine Navigator. The Re-opening team is currently focused on creating the procedures for our Plan to Re-open – which addresses many logistics, including access to restrooms and up-grading our air filtration systems. We're also creating guidelines for small groups to meet outside at the Hillcrest campus. Unfortunately, our South Bay campus doesn't have the possibility for an outside meeting space. Once these guidelines and the plan to Re-open has been finished, we'll share the news when small groups can meet outside. Masks and social distancing will still be observed. We are happy that San Diego County has moved from the Purple tier to the Red tier and the Re-opening team decided that when the County is in the Orange tier, we'll develop Re-opening policies for each of our two campuses regarding larger group meetings, including specific activities, such as singing. Visit our website page for more updates in the future. www.firstuusandiego.org/reopening-team.html

You can join other UUs, working collaboratively with the UU Ministry for Earth, in a new caucus for Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC) focused on the intersections of racial, environmental and climate injustices. Still Scamming!

Please be aware that this is still happening - even nationwide at our other UU churches. Especially during these tender times, folks are scamming church members in order to get gift cards purchased and sent to them. And, there's nothing we can do about it except warn you and educate you. Never respond to any church member, staff or minister unless it comes from a valid church email, i.e. staffname@firstuusandiego.org. We do not use gmail accounts for our official church staff business. The following is an example of the latest email scam going around. No minister or staff member will ever reach out for help in this way! Please be careful out there, stay safe, wear a mask when going out and wash your hands frequently!
