3. Acceptance of one another, and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
5. The right of conscience, and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
7. Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part;
8. Building a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and oppressions.

Your Reopening Team's Update

The Delta variant of the coronavirus is causing increased cases everywhere. We no longer have any true "no risk" situations. Fortunately, the vaccines are highly effective, though slightly less so among the elderly and those immuno-compromised. The variant is as contagious as chicken pox and can hit the not vaccinated really hard, including children. Vaccinated persons are FAR less likely to face possible hospitalization or worse. The disease can surely be spread by those not vaccinated who pick up the virus, but also by fully vaccinated people who may become infected even without showing symptoms. Getting vaccinated is the primary responsible thing we can do, for ourselves and others.

This situation means masks will be necessary for the foreseeable future at all church gatherings. We can't take chances.

As part of our institutional responsibility we'll need to keep track of who attends services in person, in case some spread occurs. This will be done either by you entering your data ahead of time, or by us gathering your data at the time of the event. We'll let you know.

If approved, these building code updates will be effective January 1, 2023. See more at CEC linking to the Executive Summary and opportunity for public comment on 2022 Standards Web Page.

How Pantry Clients Say "Thank You" and Other Unexpected Conversations

A bottle of scented hand sanitizer. A five dollar bill tucked in an envelope. Homemade food. These are just some of the gifts our pantry clients give to our pantry and volunteers on Saturdays. This past Saturday, one of our existing clients told me he owned a signage business and offered to make more laminated numbers similar to the ones we hand out to clients so we can practice a first-come, first-served food distribution. He offered signs and banners too. All for free... read more on the blog at: www.firstuusandiego.org/blog/thank-you
